Overview

World Pharmacists Day is celebrated on September 25. The day, as the name suggests, is to encourage and promote activities that advocate the role of a pharmacist in improving health across the world. It is well known that pharmacists across the world help people get the best from their medicines, they are using their experience, knowledge, and expertise to make the (medical) world a better place for everybody. Furthermore, they are also the people who advise patients on how to take medicines so that they are most effective.

The founder of World Pharmacists Day, the International Pharmaceutical Federation (FIP) is the global body representing pharmacy, pharmaceutical sciences, and pharmaceutical education. Through their 144 national organizations, academic institutional members and individual members, they represent millions of pharmacists, pharmaceutical scientists and pharmaceutical educators around the world. FIP is a non-governmental organization with its head office in the Netherlands. Through their partnerships and extensive pharmacy and pharmaceutical sciences network, they work to support the development of the pharmacy profession, through practice and emerging scientific innovations, and through developing the pharmacy workforce in order to meet the world's health care needs and expectations.

The purpose of World Pharmacists Day, which was brought to life at the FIP Council 2009 in Istanbul and suggested the 25th September because the FIP was established on the same day in 1912.

This year the theme is “Transforming global health“. The aim of the theme is to show how pharmacists contribute to a world where everyone benefits from access to safe, effective, quality and affordable medicines and health technologies, as well as from pharmaceutical care services.

In view of that Pratiksha Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Guwahati had also celebrated the day with various events including a formal meeting among the members of the institute in presence of the Principal of the institute and the invited guest from Assam Science and Technology University, Assam through ZOOM digital platform. On the occasion of World Pharmacists Day 2020 a painting competition, a pharma quiz competition conducted by Quiz Master Dr. Chandrajit Dohutia were organized. A card of appreciation was presented to the dispensing pharmacists for their hard work in this pandemic by the students of PIPS. A plantation drive was also done in the institute campus.
